

I am concerned about the expansion of LPFM stations by the FCC. Many of my friends and I frequently listen to K-LOVE, which is a listener supported Christian radio station via a FM translator service. I live in Humboldt County, and there are not a lot of wholesome radio station choices available, therefore I think it would be a great loss to our community if this station was no longer available.